MEDIA ADVISORY

Kyma Receives Regional Culinary Hospitality Award

What: Santé Magazine is the premiere culinary and hospitality magazine for restaurant professionals. The Santé Restaurant Awards are based on a variety of criteria, and winners represent a broad spectrum of restaurant and hospitality. The awards, now in their twelfth year, were created to recognize excellence in restaurant food, wine, spirits, and service hospitality. Hundreds apply, only a few are honored.

Who: Buckhead Life Restaurant Group's Kyma (3085 Piedmont Rd., Atlanta, 404-262-0702) has received the Regional Culinary Hospitality Award from Santé Magazine.

The Culinary Hospitality Award honors restaurants and professionals that exhibit outstanding achievement in culinary service and hospitality.

Kyma, a contemporary Greek seafood tavern, has always given great focus to develop a beverage list to compliment the fresh Mediterranean flavors with wines almost exclusively from Greece. Kyma is led by Executive Chef Pano I. Karatassos and General Manager Nicholas Sousounis.
